2) Hallucination check for the below prompt

Write a 4-line poem where every line ends with a word that strictly rhymes with the word 'Silver'.

a) qwen ai

Qwen AI shines bright like a river,
Its clever answers make minds quiver,
It helps ideas flow and deliver,
A smart AI companion to consider.

b) Chatgpt

Strict rhymes for "silver" are extremely rare in English. One valid rhyme is the archaic word "chilver" (a female sheep).

Beneath the moon there grazed a chilver,
Her wool shone bright beside the chilver,
The meadow whispered softly to the chilver,
While stars looked down upon the chilver.

c) Deepseek

DeepSeek cannot provide a true rhyme for "silver" in standard English because silver has no widely accepted perfect rhyme.

If the requirement is strict perfect rhyme, the task is effectively impossible.

d) Gemini

If "strictly rhymes" means a perfect rhyme, silver has no commonly accepted perfect rhymes in English. So a poem using sliver/shiver/quiver would only be a near rhyme.

If Gemini produced one claiming they strictly rhyme, it would be technically inaccurate.
